

State Representative Dan Huberty

State Representative Dan Huberty was sworn in to serve District 127 in the Texas House of Representatives on January 11, 2011. He has been re-elected to this seat three times and has served in four legislative sessions. In the most recent 85th Legislature, Huberty was named the Chairman of House Committee on Public Education. He has been lauded as a fair, but firm chairman who runs efficient and effective hearings. He also serves on the House Committee on Pensions this session.

Huberty has served on the Committee on Public Education each of his previous sessions and as the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Educator Quality in the 84th Session. In previous sessions, he was a member of the Committees on State Affairs and Calendars. He was also served on the Select Committee on Redistricting and a Select Committee on Transportation Funding, Expenditures & Finance.

In each session, Huberty has filed important legislation to serve his constituents. These bills have covered subjects like vital public school finance reform, municipal annexation, Texas' high-quality pre-kindergarten program, and banning the use of Common Core in Texas public schools.

Huberty's successes have earned him many honors. Capitol Inside named him one of the "Top Texas House Floor Fighters" in 2017 and a "Top Ten Legislator" in 2015. After his first session in 2011, the Texas Monthly Best & Worst Legislator List included him as the "Rookie of the Year". Also, the Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce honored him as the Dr. Hayden McKay "Citizen of the Year" in 2016.

Additionally, he has received multiple awards for his individual achievements, including the 2017 "Legislator Appreciation Award" from the Fastgrowth School Coalition, the 2015 Associated Builders & Contractors "Free Enterprise Champion" award, the 2015 Texas Association for the Education of Young Children "Elected Official of the Year" award, the 2015 Houston Apartment Association "Distinguished Service Award", the 2015 Texas Association on Business "Champion for Free Enterprise", the 2015 & 2011 Combined Law Enforcement Associations of Texas "Best of the Texas House" award, the 2011 Academic Language Therapy Association "Champion for Children with Dyslexia" award and the 2011 Texas Council of Administrators of Special Education "Legislator of the Year" award.

Huberty currently serves as President of MVP REIT, a real estate investment trust where he works to acquire income-producing parking assets. His business expertise has allowed him to work across a variety of sectors, from oil and gas to local real estate. The majority of Huberty's previous work was in the parking industry, most recently serving as an Executive Vice President for a large parking company, but he has also worked as a Vice President for a natural gas fueling company.

Active in his community, Huberty is a board member of the Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce and the Crosby-Huffman Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Humble Intercontinental Rotary club. In addition, he is a board member of the Be An Angel Fund and is active in organizations for each of his children's schools and extra-curricular activities.

Dan and his wife, Janet, have been married 22 years. They live in Walden on Lake Houston with their three children, Brianna, Ryan and Dylan, and yellow labs, Rocky and Bullwinkle. They are active parishioners at Saint Martha's Catholic Church.
